DISCLAIMER: I take pride in my work and do my best to create a quality mount you can enjoy for years to come. However, I have found that I must include this disclaimer as no two mounts are the same. What you see on my website or Facebook page will not be identical to what you receive. All mounts are done on a custom basis with no mass production qualities. The mount you receive will be a close representation to the mounts shown, but not identical to the pictures on www.treadwelltaxidermy.com or its Facebook page. Due to the unique characteristics of each specimen and color variations with computer monitors, there will be variances in each mount. All Hides are shipped out for professional tanning at customer's risk. All taxidermy work is done at the customer's risk. We are not responsible for items lost or damaged due to tanning, hair slippage, fire, theft, or any other mishap. Due to the custom nature of this work, refunds are not available. No guarantee is provided for the time it will take to complete your mount. Extreme delays in tanning have occurred since 2020. We know you are anxious to receive it back and we will notify you if anything is needed or when it is completed.
